INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Board of Directors of National Committee for Responsive Philanthropy

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of National Committee for Responsive Philanthropy (NCRP), which comprise the statement of financial position as of September 30, 2024, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the NCRP as of September 30, 2024, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAS). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the NCRP and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audit. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the NCRP's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditors' Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditors' report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with GAAS will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with GAAS, we:

- exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks.
 Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the NCRP's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the NCRP's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Report on Summarized Comparative Information

We have previously audited the NCRP's 2023 financial statements, and we expressed an unmodified audit opinion on those audited financial statements in our report dated January 29, 2024. In our opinion, the summarized comparative information presented herein as of and for the year ended September 30, 2023, is consistent, in all material respects, with the audited financial statements from which it has been derived.

1. Organization and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Organization

The National Committee for Responsive Philanthropy (NCRP) is a publicly supported organization exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (the IRC).

NCRP's mission statement communicates the purpose of the organization:

NCRP promotes philanthropy that serves the public good, is responsive to people and communities with the least wealth and opportunity, and is held accountable to the highest standards of integrity and openness.

NCRP's vision statement communicates the organization's vision for a democratic society and philanthropy's role in it:

We envision a fair, just and democratic society in which the common good is recognized as a high priority; where a robust public sector is empowered to protect, preserve and extend the commonly held resources and the public interest; where a vital nonprofit sector provides voice and value to those most in need; and where all people enjoy equality of opportunity, access and fair treatment without discrimination based on race, gender, sexual orientation, physical ability, economic status, national origin or other identities.

To achieve the organization's mission and vision, NCRP conducts original research, publishes thought-provoking content, provides tools for grantmakers, engages the philanthropic and nonprofit sectors in productive dialogue, and advocates for improved public policies. These activities are funded primarily through foundation grants.

NCRP's programs consist of the following activities:

a. Initiatives: NCRP carried out several initiatives to improve philanthropy during the fiscal year. They included:

Power Moves

Power Moves is an assessment toolkit that funders can use to advance equity in their grantmaking. Power Moves is designed to help funders examine their own power and the power of communities, government and other sectors in society through an exploration of building, sharing and wielding power, with the goal of progress toward more equitable systems and outcomes for people of color and others facing stark disparities. Key elements of the guide include stakeholder feedback tools, discussion guides, roadmaps for progress and tips for building, sharing and wielding power. Ultimately, the project's long-term goal is that foundations and their grantee partners will become more strategic and impactful in advancing structural reforms, resulting in more equitable outcomes for communities. Power Moves has been downloaded over 3,000 times.

Movement Investment Project

Movement Investment Project was borne out of the knowledge that social movements in the United States are drastically under-resourced and under-funded by philanthropy. This multi-year NCRP initiative will help funders see themselves and the issues they care about as part of the movement ecosystem, build the philanthropic sector's capacity to support movements, and redefine best practices for movement funding. Currently, the project's focus is on immigrant and refugee justice.

High Net Worth Donors (HNWD)

We recognize the growing trend of substantial giving from some individuals outside of the foundation structure, and will continue working to engage a sub-set of targeted HNWD intermediaries/advisors with NCRP content. We aim to build or strengthen relationships with HNWD intermediaries and/or organizational affinity groups to create a small, but mighty set of NCRP "champions" in this arena.

NCRP Impact Awards

Begun in 2013, the NCRP Impact Awards have celebrated foundations that are leaders in the areas of:

Exemplary Grantmaking: Allocating a relatively high percentage of annual discretionary giving to social justice, marginalized communities, general operating support and multi-year grants. Its grantees have a visible effect on promoting systems change and empowering marginalized communities.

Leadership in Philanthropy: The funder's leaders publicly demonstrate a commitment to systems change strategies, such as public speaking or writing about funding social change strategies and marginalized groups, serving on committees or other initiatives that promote social justice and signing on to NCRP's Philanthropy's Promise.

Diversity, Inclusion and Equity: The funder shows a demonstrated commitment to diversity, inclusion and equity, especially along lines of race and gender, in its staff and trustees.

b. Communications: NCRP also stimulates critical thinking in the philanthropic sector with a robust communications program. Our communication efforts include:

Keynotes & Presentations

One of the ways we work to educate the sector is to present at or attend approximately 60 conferences and sector events annually. Recent examples include Social Justice & Philanthropy: Purpose, The Responsibility & Opportunity PSO's Miss: Migrant Justice as Racial Justice, Reimagining Leadership for Thriving Movements, NCRP's Impact Awards, and GEO Community Driven Philanthropy Remote Series, among others.

Blogs, Journals, and Social Media

Roundup, our monthly electronic newsletter, reaches almost 4,000 people. We also engage with more than 23,000 followers on Twitter, and high-profile individuals with larger followings regularly retweet our tweets. We also have over 3,800 Facebook followers.

Responsive Philanthropy

Responsive Philanthropy is NCRP's popular e-journal. This signature publication has over 22,000 annual readers, and is well known in the sector for its focus on timely issues. It continues to be a well-regarded vehicle for important and provocative commentary in the sector, and often has articles written by sector leaders.

- c. Research: NCRP's research and evaluation department organizes information about movements and the philanthropy sector to advance racial and social justice in philanthropy. The research and evaluation team provides data and analysis to inform NCRP campaigns and projects, helps build the stories NCRP tells with its research, and evaluates the internal and external impact of the organization's work. The team also works with allies within movements and in the sector to equip them with the information they need to advance shared goals of racial and social justice.
- d. Membership: NCRPs nonprofit membership department oversees the organization's nonprofit membership program which is an opportunity for social justice focused nonprofits to become a member of our organization and participate in efforts aimed at helping them better understand and navigate the philanthropic sector. This department oversees internal systems and databases, hosts educational and networking opportunities, manages a suite of member benefits, and otherwise engage with organizations to serve their needs and inform other aspects of NCRPs work. Membership revenue is treated as contribution as benefits provided to members are negligible in comparison to the donation provided.
- e. New Project Development: NCRP spent time developing new projects that will be carried out in future years. One of those will be an effort to help high net worth donors get more impact for their philanthropy.
- f. Marketing: NCRPs marketing department is involved in the coordination and production of materials that represent the organization. This includes everything from the knowledge products we produce to business cards and the look & function of the website. This department is also pulled into planning conversations regarding the promotion of the organization and any efforts that reference how we present our mission to the sector.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

NCRP considers all highly liquid investments not held for long-term investment purposes, with purchased maturities of three months or less when purchased, to be cash equivalents.

Investments

Investments consist of interest-bearing cash deposits, mutual funds and exchange-traded funds. These investments are reported at fair value. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Unrealized gains or losses on investments are determined by the change in fair value at the beginning and end of the reporting period. Purchases and sales of securities are recorded on a trade-date basis. Interest income is recorded on the accrual basis. Dividends are recorded on the ex-dividend date.

Fair Value Measurement

The Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 820, Fair Value Measurement, defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP), and requires disclosures about fair value measurements for assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis. The ASC emphasizes that fair value is a market-based measurement, not an entity-specific measurement, and therefore a fair value measurement should be determined based on the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability. As a basis for considering market participant assumptions in fair value measurements, the ASC established a fair value hierarchy based upon the transparency of the inputs to the valuation of an asset or liability. These inputs may be observable (Level 1), whereby market participant assumptions are developed based on market data obtained from independent sources, and unobservable (Level 3), whereby assumptions about market participant assumptions are developed by the reporting entity based on the best information available in the circumstances.

The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are described as follows:

Level 1 – Inputs based on quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities accessible at the measurement date.

Level 2 – Inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly, such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets.

Level 3 – Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability, including the reporting entity's own assumptions in determining the fair value measurement.

As of September 30, 2023, NCRP's investments, as described in Note 3 of these financial statements, were measured at fair value on a recurring basis.

Property and Equipment and Related Accumulated Depreciation and Amortization

Property and equipment primarily consist of office furniture and equipment, software, and expenses related to NCRP's website, which are recorded at cost. Depreciation is provided on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets, generally three years for software and five years for office furniture and equipment. Website costs are amortized over three years. NCRP capitalizes property and equipment with a cost of $1,000 or more and an economic life in excess of one year. Costs incurred in the development of the website are expensed during the preliminary and post-implementation operation stages, including data conversion, training and maintenance costs. Costs incurred during the website's development stage are capitalized. Expenditures for major repairs or improvements are capitalized; expenditures for minor repairs and maintenance are expensed when incurred. The cost of property and equipment retired or disposed of is removed from the accounts along with the related accumulated depreciation, and any gain or loss is reflected in the accompanying statement of activities and changes in net assets.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

NCRP reviews its long-lived assets for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value of an asset may not be recoverable. If the fair value is less than the carrying amount of the asset, an impairment loss is recognized for the difference. As of September 30, 2024, NCRP had not recognized an impairment loss.

Classification of Net Assets

NCRP's net assets are reported as follows:

- Net assets without donor restrictions represent the portion of expendable funds that are available for any purpose in performing the primary objectives of NCRP at the discretion of NCRP's management and the Board of Directors (the Board).
- Net assets with donor restrictions represent funds that are specifically restricted by donors for use in various programs and/or for a specific period of time. These donor restrictions can be temporary in nature in that they will be met by actions of NCRP or by the passage of time. Other donor restrictions are perpetual in nature, whereby the donor has stipulated that the funds be maintained in perpetuity. As of September 30, 2024, NCRP had no net assets with donor restrictions that are required to be maintained in perpetuity.

Revenue Recognition

Unconditional grants and contributions are reported as revenue and support in the year in which payments are received and/or unconditional promises are made. Unconditional grants and contributions are considered without donor restrictions unless specifically restricted by the grantor. Amounts received that are designated for future periods or restricted by the grantor for specific purposes are reported as revenue and support with donor restrictions. When a grantor restriction expires (that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is met), net assets are reclassified from net assets with donor restriction to net assets without donor restriction and reported in the accompanying statement of activities and changes in net assets as net assets released from restrictions. Unconditional grants and contributions that have been committed to NCRP but have not been received as of year-end are reflected as grants and contributions receivable in the accompanying statement of financial position. Conditional promises to give, that is, those with a measurable performance or other barrier, and a right of return, are not recognized until the conditions on which they depend have been substantially met. Amounts related to these conditional grants are recognized and released in the same year.

Contract revenue relates to research services and is recognized as revenue as performance obligations are met over the contract period.

Right-of-Use Assets and Lease Liabilities

NCRP determines if an arrangement is or contains a lease at inception. Leases are included in operating right of use (ROU) assets and lease liabilities in the statement of financial position. The ROU assets and operating lease liabilities are recognized at the commencement date of the lease agreement based on the present value of lease payments over the lease term using risk-free rate and is adjusted for lease incentives. The ROU assets are amortized on a straight-line basis over the lease term and is reflected as rent expenses for office rent and office equipment rental for copier leases in the accompanying financial statements. The lease liability is reduced as cash payments are made under the terms of the lease. Interest is charged to lease expense for the difference. Short-term operating leases, which have an initial term of 12 months or less, are not recorded on the statement of financial position. Instead, the lease payments of those leases are reported as lease expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Functional Allocation of Expenses

The costs of providing the various programs and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the accompanying statement of functional expenses. Expenses directly attributed to a specific functional area of NCRP are reported as expenses of those functional areas. Salaries are allocated to programs and supporting services based on employee timesheets. Payroll taxes and fringe benefits and shared costs (such as rent and other occupancy, depreciation and amortization, printing, postage, mailing and delivery, insurance, dues and subscriptions and other operating expenses) that benefit multiple functional areas have been allocated among the various functional areas based on the actual direct labor charged to those functional areas.

Use of Estimates

7. Commitments, Risks and Contingencies (continued)

Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments which potentially subject NCRP to a concentration of credit risk consist principally of cash balances maintained at various creditworthy financial institutions. While the amount at a given bank, at times, exceeds the amount insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation of up to $250,000 per depositor per bank and, therefore, bears some risk, NCRP has not experienced, nor does it anticipate, any losses on its funds. At September 30, 2024, there was no amount in excess of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation insured limit of $250,000.

8. Net Assets with Donor Restrictions

As of September 30, 2024, net assets with donor restrictions were restricted for the following purpose or time restriction:

General Expenditures Within One Year	$	1,666,080

NCRP has various sources of liquidity at its disposal, including cash and cash equivalents and investments, which are available for general expenditures, liabilities and other obligations as they come due. Management is focused on sustaining the financial liquidity of NCRP throughout the year. This is done through monitoring and reviewing NCRP's cash flow needs on a regular basis. As a result, management is aware of the cyclical nature of NCRP's cash flow related to NCRP's various funding sources and is therefore able to ensure that there is cash available to meet current liquidity needs. To help manage unanticipated liquidity needs, NCRP has a committed line of credit secured by NCRP's investments, of which $500,000 was unused and available to draw upon as of September 30, 2024, and the CEO is authorized to draw up to 25% of the available line of credit without the approval of the Board. 10. Pension Plan

11. Income Taxes

NCRP is a nonprofit organization exempt from federal taxes on income other than net unrelated business income under Section 501(c)(3) of the IRC. No provision for federal or district income taxes was required as of September 30, 2024, as NCRP had no taxable net unrelated business income.

NCRP follows the authoritative guidance relating to accounting for uncertainty in income taxes included in FASB ASC Topic 740, Income Taxes. These provisions provide consistent guidance for the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an entity's financial statements and prescribe a threshold of "more likely than not" for recognition and derecognition of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. NCRP performed an evaluation of uncertainty in income taxes for the year ended September 30, 2024, and determined that there were no matters that would require recognition in the financial statements or that may have any effect on its tax-exempt status. U.S. federal jurisdiction and/or the various states and local jurisdictions in which NCRP files tax returns are open for examination; however, there are currently no examinations pending or in progress. It is NCRP's policy to recognize interest and penalties related to uncertainty in income taxes, if any, in interest expense or income tax expense, respectively. As of September 30, 2024, NCRP had no accruals for interest and/or penalties.

12. Summarized Comparative Information

The financial statements include certain prior year summarized comparative information in total but not by net asset class and functional area.
